

Notre Dame College Falcons Athletics Blue and White Pride

Notre Dame College sponsors 24 varsity intercollegiate athletic teams. Falcon men's and women's student-athletes come to College Road from all around Ohio, the Midwest, the nation, and the globe.

NDC competes as a NCAA Division II institution and Falcon athletic teams compete against fellow Division II programs as well as some Division I programs.

In recent years, the Blue & White have earned many successes. In 2010, 2011 and 2012, the Falcon Wrestling team won three consecutive National Championships. The Falcons have produced seven individual National Champions in Wrestling (Victor Crenshaw-2007, Adam Koballa-2009, Thomas Straughn, Jeff Pelton, Derek Foore-2010, Dante Rini-2011, Orlando Scales-2011, and one in Track & Field (Michael Mannozi-2010). In 2010, the men's soccer team was national runner up.

Notre Dame student-athletes have attained All-American status on the playing field and Scholar Athlete honors in the classroom. Falcon teams have garnered multiple conference championships and national championship appearances.
